Preface

This book represents an important milestone in my life. God has given me the opportunity to share His truth about stewardship with many audiences. All along the way I have been motivated to take His principles of stewardship to a wider audience, therefore this book is a step towards that goal.

This work contains many passages of Scripture, as well as quotations from other Christian writers, interwoven with explanations and comments to aid the reader in understanding the spirituality of stewardship.

I am particularly grateful to my wife Deborah, my children Joshua and Rosalie and my parents for their support and encouragement throughout the years. I wish to express my deep and lasting appreciation to the members of the Breath of Life Seventh-day Adventist Church, Rochester, NY and to my friend and previous Pastor, Roger R. Wade, for their support and feedback in refining and simplifying some of the more complex spiritual concepts of stewardship.

Finally, I would like to express my gratitude to Dr. Bertram Melbourne and Pastor Victoria D. Harrison for their input and advice on the manuscript.

Let each one [give] as he has made up his own mind and purposed in his heart, not reluctantly or sorrowfully or under compulsion, for God loves (He takes
